

CANADIAN NATIONAL RAILROAD / KANSAS CITY SOUTHERN

Mendrop~Wages currently maintains multiple contracts with the Canadian National Railroad and Kansas City Southern Railway Co. to provide both professional engineering and surveying services. Various projects include control surveys, existing topographic bridge surveys associated with hydraulic modeling necessary for bridge replacement and rehabilitation to improve track capacities. The hydrologic and hydraulic evaluations are performed to analyze the existing structures, hydraulic characteristics, and to provide guidance for possible alternative structures proposed for construction.

